

Accounting, Society and the Environment

Research Workshop:

Accounting Control, Governance and Anti-Corruption Initiatives in Public Sector Organisations

Wednesday 11th October 2017

Venue: The Cedar Room, Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh

<http://www.hw.ac.uk/student-life/campus-life/edinburgh/edinburgh-campus-map.htm>

Organised by Dr Audrey S Paterson and Dr Fredrick Changwony

Sponsored by Chartered Institute of Management Accountants

Accounting for Society and the Environment 2017 Programme

08.50 – 09.15 Registration and coffee Hugh Nisbet Building: Upstairs Mezzanine Area

09.15 – 09.25 Cedar Suite Welcome: Audrey Paterson

Opening Session	Cedar Suite	Chair: Bill Jackson
09.25 – 10.00	Massimo Sargiacomo, Luca Ianni and Antonio D'Andre Matteo, University G.d'Annunzio of Chieti-Pescara.	Corruption, Frauds, Big Data and Accounting for the Public Interest: a longitudinal analysis on the Italian Healthcare System (1984-2017).
10.00 – 10.35	Irvine Lapsley, University of Edinburgh. Alessandro Ala, Queen's Belfast University.	Accounting for Crime.
10.35 – 11.10	Mo Sherif, Heriot-Watt University.	Governance and Stock Return Continuities: Evidence From G7 Countries

11.10 – 11.40 Refreshment Break Mezzanine Area

Session 2	Cedar Suite	Chair: Mo Sherif
11.40 – 12.15	Fredrick Changwony, Stirling University. Audrey Paterson, Heriot-Watt University.	Accounting Practice, Fiscal Decentralization and Corruption.
12.15 – 12.50	Kim Klarskov Jeppesen, Copenhagen Business School.	The Role of Auditing in the Fight Against Corruption.

12.50 – 13.50 Lunch Mezzanine Area

Session 3	Cedar Suite	Chair: Amanze Ejiogu
13.50 – 14.25	Yang Wang, John K. Ashton and Aziz Jaafar, Bangor University.	Money shouts! How Effective are Punishments for Accounting Fraud?
14.25 – 15.00	Irvine Lapsley, University of Edinburgh. Anna Scheer, Friedrich Schiller University.	Opacity and Disingenuity: The Governance of FIFA

15.00 – 15.30 Refreshment Break Mezzanine Area

Closing Session	Cedar Suite	Chair: Fredrick Changwony
15.30 – 16.05	Dr. Amanze Ejiogu, Chibuzo Ejiogu and Ambisisi Ambituuni, Coventry University.	The Dark Side of Transparency: Problematising the Nigeria Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative as a Public-Sector Transparency, Accountability and Anti-Corruption Initiative
16.05 – 16.40	Mark Mulcahy, University of Cork.	Regulatory Disclosure and the Irish Financial Services Ombudsman.

16.40 – 17.00 Cedar Suite Audrey Paterson: Closing remarks